SCI Consulting Services, Inc. Awarded Smart CEO Future 50

VIENNA, Va – SCI Consulting Services, Inc. (SCI) rings in the New Year being recognized and awarded “Future 50” by Washington SmartCEO Magazine, as one of the area’s fastest growing companies.

Each year SmartCEO honors the top fifty (50) privately held, fastest growing companies in the Greater Washington, D.C. area. SCI and others will be publically recognized at a gala event Thursday January 17, 2008 at the Westin Alexandria.

SCI has been servicing the federal government as a professional IT service provider for twenty-five (25) years. While operating as a small business, SCI has made great strides in government contracting and offers superior services to its clients and its people.

SCI’s Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer, Lynette Spano daily pushes the organization to be “Bigger, better, and greater”, with the mission to continue to be, “A great company to work for and a great company to do business with.”

“We are all very excited and proud to be honored this year as a Future 50 company by SmartCEO,” said Lynette Spano, CEO. “SCI is determined to sustain growth this next year that exceeds its accomplishments to date. The New Year, 2008, has great things in store for SCI as we celebrate 25 years in business.”

SCI also congratulates its fellow recipients. The “Future 50” list can be viewed at <http://washington.smartceo.com> or in the January edition of the Washington SmartCEO Magazine.
